

CODE OF CONDUCT
GLENMORE HUNT, INC.

Glenmore Hunt is a family-oriented hunt club. It is every members' responsibility to set forth hunt etiquette with respect to landowners, hosts of events, and other members. Members should present a good example of behavior in the hunt field, during hunt functions, and when representing the hunt. Member use of personal devices, photos, vidoes, social media, and blogs regarding hunt matters should present a positive image of the hunt and its membership. Articles for publication should receive Master approval prior to submission. The hunt enjoys a diverse membership, and welcomes members regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, veteran status, or disability. Glenmore Hunt is an inclusive organization, and will not tolerate disrespectful, offensive, or lewd behavior harmful to the hunt, the hunt's reputation, or its members.
